WOLF ARCHITECTS

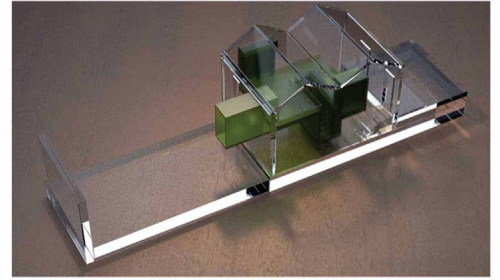

After some research you might find yourself interested in using an architect. At Wolf Architects we aim to create designs which celebrate the past, make us feel alive in the present and survive well into the future. This is a guide to why WOLF ARCHITECTS is right for you.

We often use the analogy of a fine dining restaurant for using Wolf Architects; just like deciding on the right restaurant for a special occasion, building your dream home with an architect is more than just what is on the menu, it's about the whole experience. We believe it should be a once in a lifetime experience as you share your lives with us, so that we might deliver your dream home.

Here are some guidelines to help you decide:

1 Connect with the architect's work and style.

Visit the WOLF ARCHITECTS website and study our portfolio carefully. Your emotional response from what you see in our work will hopefully be positive. Our portfolio showcases a broad variety of design styles and project types. We hope to not only demonstrate depth of work but consistency in quality.

2 Ensure the architect is qualified.

WOLF ARCHITECTS are fully qualified; only registered architects can use the titles 'architect' and 'architectural'. Our team is highly-skilled, multi-cultural and experienced. ARBV is the registration board and registered architects will be listed with them.

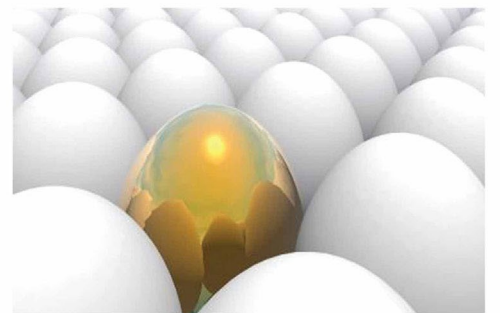

3 Connect with the architect.

Working with an architect on your home is often an intimate process. Good communication and a sense of transparency allows for a good working relationship. Visit our office and meet the team. Wolf Architects can assist you right from your first call until the very end of the project. We will listen to you and strive to understand your life, dreams and ambitions. We value your opinion and we appreciate each of you as unique individuals. Wolf Architects start every project with a blank canvas. This results in our work looking fresh, exclusive and individual.

4 Don't be swayed by the cheapest quote.

Wolf Architects are not expensive as we offer a very comprehensive services with excellent value by comparison. Architectural work should not be judged by the price tag, but by the value that is created through high quality designs. Wolf Architects creates designs of an extremely high standard.
